Building Client Relationships & Trust

Merced, CA

Thursday, October 24, 2002

9:00 am - 4:00 pm

Building a strong working relationship is the key to helping clients make change. Creating these relationships is powerful but not easy: it requires not only time, but also communication skills that help each individual client feel connected to you.

Topics will include:

- How to help clients to open up
- Setting reasonable goals
- Knowing the stages of relationships
- Communicating empathy and being real while setting appropriate boundaries
- Developing faith in ourselves and communicating to our clients our faith in them

Who should attend:

AFLP/ASPPP case managers

Trainer: Nancy Facher, LCSW, MPH, has 17 years of experience working with adolescents in clinics, schools, and shelters. She has trained high school students, therapists, physicians, nurses, and social workers in domestic violence, crisis intervention, and health related topics. She has a private psychotherapy practice in Berkeley.

REGISTRATION

Mail or fax one registration form per person to be received by the deadline. Or register online at: www.centerforhealthtraining.org. Duplicate this form as needed.

If it is not possible to process payment before the deadline, the registration form may be sent separately.

CONFIRMATION

Confirmations will be mailed two weeks prior to the workshop and will include specific location, directions and other details. Participants are responsible for their own meals, travel and lodging.

FEES

Fees are per person, per day. AFLP/ASPPP staff: $15. Private/Other funding: $40. A $10 late fee will be assessed for each registration received after the deadline. Fees can be refunded if cancellation is received 5 working days prior to the session. CE units are $4 per contact hour.

CE UNITS
